

Please do not implement any proposal that limits Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. We received at least 3 telemarketing calls per day which is a significant problem with a new baby in the house and a spouse who works irregular hours and is wakened by the phone. We support strict limitations on telemarketing--eliminating telemarketing entirely would be preferable. Thank you.